Colin Lance Cooper

Colin Lance Cooper, 56, of DeQuincy, passed away Monday, Sept. 9, 2019, at his residence. He was born on Sept. 15, 1962, in DeQuincy. Colin enjoyed anything to do with the game of baseball. He was a 1st team All-State pitcher, named MVP in the state of Louisiana and the captain of his baseball team. He went to Lamar University on a full ride baseball scholarship. After college, he returned to SWLA where he was an operator at Citgo for over 20 years. He continued growing in his love for baseball as he coached many teams. Colin enjoyed playing golf, hunting, fishing, and most of all watching his children play sports and spending time with them. He was an avid Dallas Cowboys and LSU fan. Most of all, he loved his family very much and was proud of all of them.

He is survived by his son, Cadan Cooper of Sulphur; two daughters, Lelkyn Cooper of Parker, Colo., Bethany Cooper of Sulphur; mother, Joy Cooper of DeQuincy; and a sister, Angie Hollingsworth of DeQuincy.

Colin was preceded in death by his father, Charles Cooper.
