Richard “Dick” White

SULPHUR — Richard G. “Dick” White, 67, died Wednesday, June 12, 2019, in a local care center.

He was a native of Weymouth, Mass., and had been a resident of Sulphur for the last 75 years. He was a member of Maplewood United Methodist Church, where he had served on the church council and the United Methodist Men. Dick retired from Citgo as a draftsman after 40 years of service. He enjoyed woodworking and building model airplanes and ships.

Survivors include his wife of 60 years, Barbara White of Sulphur; his son, Tony White and wife Lisa of Flower Mound, Texas, John White and wife Wave of Sulphur, and James White and wife Therese of Lake Charles; and three grandchildren, Connor White, Garrett White and Madeline White. He is preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Molly White.

His funeral will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 15, in Maplewood United Methodist Church. The Rev. Andy Golf will officiate. Burial will be in Pioneer Memorial Park Cemetery in Lake Charles under the direction of Hixson-Sulphur Memorial Funeral Home. Pallbearers will be Tony White, John White, James White, Connor White, Garrett White, Wayne Lenoir and Roy Harris. Visitation will be from 5-6 p.m. Friday in the funeral home and will resume at 12:30 p.m., until the time of service Saturday in the church.
